LOGAN, CACHE COUNTY, UTAH SATURDAY OCTOBER 16 1915

THIRTEENTH YEAR

"INTERURBAN DAY" TO BE CELEBRATED IN LOGAN LATTER PART OF MONTH

October 27th has been chosen as the date. Towns of Valley to Join in Celebration. Tentative program has been outlined. Band contest and Barbecue.

Some months ago, at a meeting of the Commercial Club it was thought advisable and very appropriate to have a big Cache Valley Interurban Celebration at Logan upon the completion of the railroad between Wellsville and Brigham City. The matter was referred to the Public Entertainment committee of the Club with power to act. The committee has been working and thinking quietly during the summer for the event and have waited for Assistant General Manager, Robert Anderson, to give the word. The word has been given.

Mr. Hicks, the weatherman, has been consulted and he assures us fair weather the latter part of October. It has therefore, been definitely decided to hold the celebration on Wednesday, October 27.

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Club held last Wednesday, it was the sentiment of all those present that the completion of the electric railway was a Red Letter Day for Cache Valley and that the committee had their hearty support and should by all means go ahead with the celebration. Perhaps not so much to the investor, but certainly to the public, the electric railway is the best paying investment that has come to the valley. Cache now has most excellent transportation facilities.

As most of the other towns of the valley have given free, celebrations upon the interurban entering their vicinities, it is the aim of the committee to make the Cache valley interurban celebration at Logan on October 27, free to the public as far as possible, and all the people on the north to Preston, and on the south to Brigham, Ogden and Salt Lake City are cordially invited to come and join in the festivities.

The following tentative program has been outlined and will take place on the Tabernacle square and Main street:

1. Open air meeting at 10:30 a.m.
2. Big barbecue at 11:30 a.m.
3. Push ball contest, Richmond High School versus Hyrum High School.

School.

4. Push ball contest, U. A. C. versus B. Y. C.

5. One mile walking contest on the pavement on Main street.

6. Big free dancing stree carnival on Main street from 7 to 9:30 o'clock p. m.

7. Ball at the Auditorium at 9:30 p. m.

8. County band contest to be judged during the day and evening.

A cash purse will be offered in the push ball contest between the Richmond and Hyrum High Schools. The money will go to the schools and not the students as the students are not allowed to compete for cash.

In the walking contest there will be three liberal cash prizes offered for first, second and third. The contest is open to all, but there must be at least five entries. Here is an opportunity for good walkers.

In the county band contest a very liberal purse will be offered and the following bands will be permitted to enter, Richmond, Smithfield, Hyde Park, and Hyrum, or any other band in the county with the exception of the Logan band. It will be barred from the contest.

Mr. A. D. Bell, a member of the committee, is an expert in preparing and conducting barbecues. The barbecue will be served just back of the Tabernacle in cafeteria style, so that all will be served quickly. Six quarters of beef will be ordered, besides many leaves of bread and sweet and sour pickles.

The decoration committee of the Club will decorate the streets, and the city will see that we have plenty of white and colored lights which will produce a most beautiful effect on Main street during the dancing carnival. Coach Jensen will have charge of the carnival and there will be confetti galore. The five bands will be placed along the entire block so that many hundreds may take part in the dancing and hear the music.

The committee will meet often and announce the program in full as it is definitely arranged.

SERVICES FOR MRS. SNOWBALL AT HYDE PARK

Bishop Hyde Presides at Meeting Held Wednesday. Many Give Discourses

Hyde Park, Oct. 13.—A fair sized congregation attended the funeral services of Sister Elizabeth Snowball held in the meeting house today at 2 p. m. Bishop Hyde presided over the services. The choir sang "Thou Deepening Trials Tarry Your Way." Prayer was offered by Lorenzo Petersen, after which the choir sang "O Lord Responsive to Thy Call." The speakers were Bishop Benjamin Hyman of Treasureton, Idaho; James Johnson of the Oneida stake presidency; Thomas Duce of the Alberta stake presidency of Canada, and Bishop C. G. Hyde. Special musical number, "Oh, Grave Where Is Thy Victory," by Mrs. Holmstead. The closing hymn being, "Sister Thou Wast Mild and Lovely," and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Lars C. Peterson. The pall bearers were Samuel Seamons, Joseph Waite Sr., George and John Lamb, Lars Christensen. The speakers all testified of the upright moral life of the deceased and spoke of various topics pertaining to our temporal and spiritual conditions. A goodly number of carriages and automobiles loaded with friends, accompanied the remains to the cemetery where the grave was dedicated by Elder George Z. Lamb. Sister Elizabeth M. Snowball was the daughter of John and Anna Weiss Snowball, was born in Zurich, Switzerland, July 22, 1849, was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints in 1857. A few years later her mother married Elder Suel Lamb, who came to Hyde Park in the early sixties, and the deceased has made her home here ever since. Though afflicted with deafness and partial dumbness, yet she was of a lovable disposition and was a good faithful Latterday Saint. The unmarried she was a great lover of little children and ever tried to make them happy.

Mr. Riley Harris was thrown from a horse last week and badly injured. A large gash was cut under the left eye, and the cheekbone broken. He was also injured internally as he spit blood for several days. It is also said that there is a fractured bone in one of his arms. Like your correspondent he is slowly improving but is not up to much just now.

There is quite a stir in our town over the nominating of candidates for a town board. Two tickets are in the field. The first is called a non-partisan ticket, and the candidates are Fred T. Ballam, Jesse S. Haney, Joseph Waite Jr., John Matkin, and Leland Ashcroft. The others known as the Independents, are J. W. D. Hurren, Robert S. McQuarrie, John Lamb, Rosel H. Hyde, and John B. Kirby. It will be seen by these names that there are good men on both tickets. Which ticket will win, no one can tell at present.

The new home of Mrs. Mary Ann Ridgeway is nearing completion. Last Saturday all beet digging was ordered stopped until after the fifteenth of the month. This was regretted very much by the farmers as the fine weather is passing, and all are desirous of getting the crop up before bad weather sets in.

The fall grain on the east benches is looking fine.

Christian Mikkelsen and wife of Logan were visitors here yesterday.

Evan Christensen came home last Sunday night from Grace, Idaho where he has been laboring for several weeks.

W. H. LARSEN CANDIDATE FOR CITY AUDITOR

William H. Larsen, candidate for auditor, of the Non-Partisan, is a Logan product, born January 7, 1883, and in fact needs no formal introduction, as he is widely known and respected in Logan among old and young alike.

"Will" is known and noted for his cheerful disposition and willingness to oblige and do something for others. When one requests service from him he gives one the impression that the pleasure is all his own.

Mr. Larsen is well educated and has had much technical experience in clerical work, having been chief deputy in the County Clerk's office for two years and for the same period chief deputy in the County Treasurer's office.

In both these positions he gave the public loyal and efficient service and the voters of Logan City can do no better than to elect him to the position of Auditor. At his hands we may all expect with confidence absolutely satisfactory public service.

STATEMENT TO THE PEOPLE OF LOGAN BY BETTERMENT LEAGUE

The Logan Betterment League has already defined its position and aims, but it wishes at this time to state to the voters of Logan City frankly and emphatically that it is still contending for the issue which brought it into existence, viz: prohibition. It has endorsed men for office in Logan who understand the people of Logan, and who are in full sympathy with the wishes of the 1835 citizens who voted for a clean town last June. These men are honest, reliable, progressive, and sane. They will give us an efficient and business like administration.

Last summer when the liquor election was being carried on, an effort was made by the Betterment League to get the Improvement League to publish the names of its members. We were promised that we would get the list at proper time. We are glad that at least a partial list was furnished us in last Thursday's issue of this paper. These men who now call themselves "non-partisans" are, with few exceptions, the men who signed the petition, which put the city to the unnecessary expense of carrying on an election. On this list are found the names of many of the men who waged the campaign for the improvement league which was responsible for the blackmailing and scandalizing which the city got at that time. They told us that "Logan was in a reign of lawlessness," that "63 federal licenses for selling booze were in effect here," that "Logan was flourishing in a torrent of outlaw booze that for years had been making inroads into the moral and social life of the community."

"Matters cannot get much worse in Logan" they said, "for the people are utterly unable to protect their boys." Did the present city commissioners do anything at that time to counteract these evils? No. They countenanced them. Now these same men when they come up for reelection say that Logan is the cleanest city in the state. Can you trust them?

The men who now call themselves "Non-Partisan" say they constitute three fourths of Logan's business men. This is certainly not true as far as numbers is concerned, neither is it true that they pay most of the taxes. An equal number of men from the Betterment League could easily be picked out who pay quite as much in taxes as they do.

Are the two, or three dozen business men the only ones who have families to protect and interests to be served in Logan City? The Betterment League endorsed candidates who are interested in the welfare of all the people of Logan whether they happen to live on paved streets or not. These candidates are also interested in the welfare of the people who send their children here to attend our colleges. They are not in favor of smothering crime and rottenness on the pretense that their exposure would "hurt business."

Vote for William Worley, John Quayle, and William Evans Jr., and you will get an administration which will be just as progressive, just as efficient as the present one has been, and in addition, the wishes of the big majority of the citizens of the city on moral questions will be better served. We publish below the names of the delegates who named the Betterment League ticket. These delegates were selected at primaries which were very well attended.
